will not support the nominee of the Republican convention, but what we want to do is to make Low the nominee of that convention.

The Sheriff's charge of insincerity aroused Senator Brush to make a vigorous speech, declaring that he had been for Se'h Low since May, and offering to make his resolution more volicit if it was unsatisfactory to Low's friends in the committee. Attempts were made to close the discussion on points of order and other parliamentary tactics, when Benjamin F. Blair entered a vigorous protest against all attempts to shut off a full discussion, and emended Senator Brush's resolution by moving to strike out the word "if." "It would be a mark of cowardice," he declared, "on the part of the majority to object to a full expression of opinion on this subject." There was a roar of applause at this. WORTH MAKES HIS FIRST SPEECH.

Mr. Worth then made his first speech on the Low subject. "I trost," he said, "that no gentleman will try to prevent us from expressing our opinions or this subject, which so deeply concerns the Republican party and which is of more importance than anything this committee has bandled for many years."

Mr. Asterbary then, in the interest of harmory, after conferring with the Low leaders, proposed to move that all metions and resoluproposed to move that all metions and resolu-tions be withdrawn to clear the way for a vote-on the original resolution.

"Yes, and that we express the hope that Low he nominated by the Republican Convention."

Sheriff Buttling's alertness soon showed to the Plati men that a vote must be taken sooner or Platt men that a vote must be taken sooner or later on a straight-out resolution on the nomina-

THE RESOLUTION CARRIED.

Mr Ward made this possible by presenting the briefest and most pointed resolution of the even-

"It is the sense of this committee that Seth

Low is the most available candidate for the Republicans to nominate for Mayor.

Mr. Ward made a ringing speech in favor of his resolution, and brought Mr. Dutcher to the floor as spokesman for the Platt forces. Mr. Dutcher spoke with als old-time vigor and impressiveness, and was frequently cheered.

BETTER LOW THAN TAMMANY. Mr. Worth thea took up the debate and replied to Mr. Dutcher. He said, after paying him a personal compliment: "It is a question in my mind whether Ma Dutcher is opposed to Benjar in Harrison, for, butcher is opposed to being a man elected Mayor of this city who voted against Blaine, and Blaine was just an dear to the Republican party as Mr. Harrison Low has accepted the nomination of the Citizeus Union. The Republican party is extremely fortunate bequilibrian party is extremely fortunate beginning to the contraction of the citizeus union. publican party is extremely fortunate because of his independent movement, for under what other circumstances could we elect a Mayor except through such a movement? Nothing could be more dargerous to the party and to the cause of good government than the nomination of a straight Republican with an independent ticket headed by Low in the field. Nothing could be done to make surer the success of Tammany Hall. We cannot afford to adjourn without passing a resolution on this question. Is it not better to have Low under any circumstances than to have Tammany Hall?"

Mr. Blair made an earness speech in favor of the resolution, and Mr. Peredergast, one of Mr. Woodruff's best friends called forth a mighty cheer when he announced that he intended to recognize the sentiment of his ward, and vote for the Low resolution.

but that the Citizens Union would nominate the remainder of the Republican ticket if the Republicans nominated Mr. Low.

After speeches by a number of delegates, the vate ou Mr. Ward's resolution took place with the result stready told

A WILD RUSH TO GET IN.

The rush to get into the General Committee rooms was one of the flercest ever witnessed in Kings County. By 7 o'clock the stairways of the Johnston Building up to the sixth floor, where the heanquarters are located, were filled with a perspiring throng. Six stalwart policemen had been stationed at the doors leading into the assembly-room, and they had their hardest right's work for years. The crowd, propelled from the rear, surged against the biuecoats and tumbled them over like tenpins. They allowed a score or two to go by, and then reestablished their barricade, only to give way quickly filled, and the scene was a most inspiring one. Delegates and spectators mingled and chatted together. Silas B. Dutcher was one of the first delegates on the scene. His presence recalled memories of bygone battles in which his quick wit and ready tongue turned the tide. Commissioner Willis "jollied" the Worth lead-ers. Walter B. Atterbury, nervous but quiet, gilded about among the delegates, touching an excited debater here and there and giving him a

Michael J. Dady bet $500 on the result early in the evening, and spent considerable time in telling his friends about it. Major Tate, of the Twenty-third Ward, picked out here and there a Grand Army acquaintance and talked of other things than politics. Just before 8 o'clock the tall form of Jacob Worth appeared in the doorway, and he was lustily cheered, bringing out the first applause. Then Lieutenant-Governor Woodruff came in, and was greated with as much warmth as his older opponent.

Sheriff William J. Buttling, Judge Brenner, Assemblyman Soper, Chairman Jesse Trost, John W. Ward, George H. Roberts, jr., Controller 'c'n. r. Congressman Fischer-these were trademons as they moved to and fro under the thickening Lianket of cigar smoke. The gallery was a sight. It consists of a narrow railed space around three sides of the room, and the spectators were packed in so closely that there was hardly breathing room.

SENATOR BRUSH A PROMINENT FACTOR.

Senator Brush was a potential factor of the situation. Enthusiastic for Seth Low, he was still an avowed enemy of Jacob Worth. Both sides wanted him, and the Woodruff men claimed him. Another striking figure was George E. Wibecan, jr., a tall and good-looking colored delegate, who is indersed by Brooklyn officials generally for the consulship at San Domingo. A knot of excited men gathered about Sheriff William J. Buttling and Walter B. Atterbury as they engaged in a wordy tilt. "Go away," said the Twenty-third Warder, wearily and angrily. "I don't want to say anything to you." That ended the matter till the rollcall began. All eyes followed the movements of Jacob Worth. By his own confession he had the hardest fight of his life on his hands, and his face were a serious look us he mingled with and charted in an unfertone to a number of men who up to the last sat evenly balanced on the top rail of the fence and did not know on which Licutenant-Governor Woodruff was an inter-Licutenant-Governor Woodruff was an interested witness of a wordy combat between Michael Sims, of the Twelfth Ward, who tackled Walter B. Atterbury and upbraided him for, as he alleged, circulating a story to the effect that sims had received money from the Campaign Committee a year ago and used it mysteriously. Mr. Sims talked loud enough for the crowd to hear, and Mr. Atterbury explained to the reporters afterward that there was nothing in the story. Scenes of a like pature and many others story. Scenes of a like nature, and many others dissimilar, occupied the time of the committee-men until the meeting was called to order.

WHAT THE LEADERS SAY.

After the meeting Mr Worth said: "No action to-night will have any effect on

For Five Years

She Has Not Felt as Well as Since Taking Hood's Sarasparlila.

"After having the grip I was in very poor health and began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. I kept on taking it and am now feeling better than I have felt for five years. I advise all who have impure blood to take Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. O. P. BLAIR, Burr's Mill.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Is the best-in fact the One True Blood Purifier. Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, aid digestion. 25c.

Colgate's

Cashmere Bouquet Toilet Soap.

the election of delegates to the conventions. The vote to-night was brought out to place these fellows on record. The first vote was no test of strength. We simply had a difference of opinion on the dates of primaries and conven-The real test of strength came on the Low resolution.

Silas B. Dutcher said: "In regard to the adoption of the resolution indersing Mr. Low as the most available candidate, it is very unfortunate. I don't think the action of the committee night will have the least weight with the convention.

The Worth men attributed their defeat on the st amendment to the treachery of eight men.

The Worth men attributed their defeat on the first amendment to the ireachery of eight men. At a meeting held the night before they said Harry A. Hanbury pledged himself to vote with them, but that in spite of this promise, he and John J. Earrest, George H. Parshall and S. Oelson voted with Woodruff. The Worth men said that they were also deserted by August P. Schmidt and Joseph Murray, of the Sixteenth Ward, and George E. Wibecan and George W. Bannerman, of the Twenty-sixth Ward. The Worth men expressed the opinion freely that Hanbury had received a promise of the support of the Woodruff men for a county office.

A REPUBLICAN CLUB FOR LOW

STRONG SENTIMENT IN THE XXVIITH DISTRICT

ONLY ONE VOTE IN OPPOSITION-J. W. PERRY MAY BE DEPOSED FROM HIS LEADERSHIP

FOR OPPOSING QUIGG'S VIEWS. The XXVIIth Assembly District Republican Club put itself on record last night as favoring the candidacy of Seth Low for Mayor of the Greater The meeting was a special one, called to consider the position which the club should take with regard to the nomination of Mr. Low by Citizens Union, and it was largely attended. Walter Oakman, precident, occupied the chair, and among those present were William Brookfield, I. Albert Englehart, Alfred E. Marling, George W. Arnold, Assemblyman Francis E. Laimbeer, William H. Folsom, Henry C. Swords, William S. Bagg, M. Dwight Collier, William C. Wilson and B. Aymar Sands.

The committee on political action met September 8 and prepared a resolution recommending the nomination of Mr. Low by the Republican organization, which last evening it submitted to the club. The resolution was read by George W. Wickersham, and its reading was greeted with hearty sham, and its reading was greeted with hearty applause. Mr. Wickersham made a speech in favor of adopting the resolution, declaring that the club should adopt it for the interests of the city first, and, secondly, for the interests of the Republican in a vigorous speech, in which he declared that Seth Low was the ideal candidate. The only member of the club who opposed the resolution was the resolution, on the ground that it was not conducive to harmony for any wing of the party to attempt to coerce another wing into making a certain nomination with the threat of defeat if they failed to do so. He urged the club to delay action until the sentiment of the party at large should be

William Brookfield declared that Seth Low was a good-enough Republican for him and that it was for the interest of the Republican party, and even of the "so-called Republican organization," to work for his election. In case the Republican party work for his election. In case the Republican party should nominate another candidate and Tammany should win the election, he thought no one could say that the blaine for Tammany's victory would not belong upon the shoulders of the Republican party. He strongly urged the adoption of the recolution. After I. Albert Englehari had reminded the club that the city's good was the party's good the question was put, and every member except Mr. Arnold votel for the resolution.

The secretary then read a letter from Senator Pavey, expressing the hope that the club would indorse Mr. Low's nomination. A similar letter was also received from Jefferson Clark.

It was understood last evening that the Republican organization leaders had decided up in the indorse Mr. Low's nomination. A similar letter was also received from Jefferson Clark.

It was understood last evening that the Republican organization leaders had decided upon the deposition of James W. Perry, who was only recently induced to accept the leadership of the XXVIIth Assembly District, and that John Sabine Smith was to be put in Mr. Perry's place. The reason given for this change was that evidence had been lait before President Quigg and his inner council to prove that Mr. Perry was in favor of the nomination of Low, and it was feared that he might turn the district delegation over to Low. Mr. Perry is a well-known lawyer, and was prominently mentioned for State Senator when Mr. Pavey was elected from the XVth District. He is at present absent from the city on his usual vacation. His friends stout the idea that he would entitled.

men represent it was reported last evening that Republicans who favor Mr. Low's nomination by the Repub-ilean city convention have arranged to make con-tests in ten or a dozen Assembly districts of the

THE PRESIDENT AND MR. LOW. MP M'KINLEY OFFERED HIM AN IMPORTANT

DIPLOMATIC POST, WHICH HE DECLINED. There has been much effort of late on the part of those who are opposing Mr. Low's nomination for Mayor by the Republican City Convention to create the impression that President McKinley is opposed to Mr. Low and would prefer that his name should not be placed at the head of the city icket. There is excellent authority for saying that ticket. There is excellent authority for saying that these reports about the President's preference are without foundation. From sources deemed wholly trustworthy. It has been learned that the President had recently in mind the appointment of Mr. Low to an important foreign mission, and that the latter was approached on the subject of such a preferment. There is other evidence that President McKinley entertains for Mr. Low the highest regard and personal esteem, and that it is not his purpose to indicate in any way that he has objections to Mr. Low's nomination on the Republican ticket.

MR. LOW DUE HERE TO-DAY. HE WILL DEVOTE HIMSELF CHIEFLY TO COLUM-BIA APPAIRS UNTIL OCTOBER 4.

Seth Low is to arrive in this city to-day. Rooms for him have been engaged at the Plaza Hotel, Fifth-ave, and Fifty-ninth-st., because the pavement in front of his house in Madison-ave, is torn up, and it may be several weeks before the pany gets the avenue in decent condition again.
It is not expected that Mr. Low will take any active part in campaign work until after his resignation as president of Columbia University is presented to the trustees of that institution at their meeting October 4 Mr. Low will be busy preparing his annual report to the trustees after he rejurns to the city. After October 4 he will be expected to make speeches at several large meetings

Rockland, Me., Sept. 14 (Special).-Se.h Low assed through this city to-night on his way from Northeast Harbor to New-York. He was accom-panied by Mrs. Low, Miss C. P. Maxcey and How-ard Palmer, of New-York, In Boston he will take the fast express, reaching New-York at 3 p. m. to-

BAGGAGE INSPECTION DELAYS TO END.

MORE APPRAISERS TO BE DETAILED TO DUTY AT THE STEAMSHIP PIERS.

Travellers from Europe will be pleased to learn that the hitherto vexatious delays in the examina-tion of their baggage at the steamship piers are to be materially lessened. Appraiser Wakeman gave out the welcome news yesterday that, so far as he was able, the delays should be entirely done away with. His force is a small one, and as the Customs Inspectors are at present much at sea over the appraisment of articles under the "personal the appraisment of articles under the "personal effects" charse of the new tariff, the appraisers' work has been more than they could handle.

Der. Wakeman said yesterday that hereafter as many men as may be needed on the arrival of a steamship will be detailed from the Fublic Stores to assist the regular force of appraisers. An appraisers' duty is to inspect every dutiable article and put a value upon it. This work has become extremely arduous under the new law, and it has been evident for some time that more men were needed. The climax came on Friday evening, when the Furst Bismarck, the St. Paul and the Campania docked aimost at the same time, and it was 2 o'clock on Saturday morning before the passengers were all off the piers, all the baggage brought on the steamers not having been passed even then.

brought on the steaders between them.

This occurrence has led Appraiser Wakeman to take the action now announced.

BADLY HURT BY A GOLF BALL. Monmouth Beach, N. J., Sept. 14 (Special) .-- While playing golf to-day Miss Florence Baker, daughter of George F. Baker, president of the First National Bank of New-York, was severely injured by a fly-ing golf ball. Miss Baker was behind a hedge, and stood erect just in time to receive the full force of the ball in her face. Several stitches were taken to close the cut.

PRAISE FOR THE LETTER

MR. LOW'S SENTIMENTS HEARTILY APPROVED.

MAYOR STRONG IS FOR HIM UNDER ANY CIR-CUMSTANCES-DISCORDANT NOTES FROM QUIGG AND GIBES - FEELING

AMONG FINAN TAL LEADERS. Seth Low's letter of acceptance won golden words of approval on all sides among friends of good government yesterday. No one was more enthu-siastic about it than Mayor Strong. He said: 'After reading Mr. Low's letter carefuly twice I say that it is a manly, straightforward declaration of what he believes to be right. With all Mr. Low says in his letter I thoroughly agree. It is in full

You desire, then, to reaffirm your attitude in favor of non-partisan government for municipali-accord with my views."

'Yes," the Mayor answered. "There is no more loyal Republican in this country, I believe, than I am, but I am a thorough believer in non-partisan municipal government. It amounts almost to a religion with me. I feel that during the last three ears we have given a pretty conclusive test of the value of non-partisan control of municipal affairs We have Democrats in office who have performed the duties allotted to them satisfactorily. We have Republicans who have made the same record. It is a purely business matter, this conduct of a city

I have occupied this chair for nearly three years now, and through the whole of this time I can say without fear of contradiction that I have been absolutely free from political dictation. I am a Republican, as every man who knows me knows, but have never permitted thought of party to influence my judgment in administering the affairs of I believe that the people of New-York are satisfied that non-partisan municipal government is what they want."

REPUBLICAN INDORSEMENT NEEDED.

"Can Mr. Low be elected?" "Whatever I can do to elect him will be done."
said the Mayor. "If he should be indorsed by the Republican party I believe that he would poil the otes of all the elements opposed to Tammany Hall, and that will mean an election. A union of forces is absolutely necessary. Democrats usually get together on Election Day, and I shall not be surprised if they get together this fall, notwithstanding all the talk of a second Democratic mu-

Then you will take off your coat and work for "If he receives the Republican indersement I will I shall work harder for him than I worked for myself three years ago." "If he should not obtain the Republican nomina-

"I should vote for him, anyway; but without the Republican indorsement it would be of no use. this I mean that if the Republicans fail to stand by Mr. Low it would make the vindication of the nonpartisan principle in municipal affairs extremely doubtful. It would be a great plty if the Republicans did not lend their assistance to Mr. Lew. It would bring on a three-cornered fight which would render the result doubtful, with the chances in

MR. QUIGG CRITICISES THE LETTER. With much care and labor Lemnel E. Quigg drew p a written statement yesterday afternoon which was intended as an answer, on behalf of the Re-publican organization, to Mr. Low's letter. It may be said here that Mr. Low is understood by his friends to have voted for Mr. Blaine, for General Harrison in 1892 and for Governor McKinley. His only vote for a Democrat for President was cast for

Mr. Cleveland in 1888, according to the best au-thority obtainable. Mr. Quigg said: "Mr. Low explains his position clearly enough when he says 'I am a Republican, but' Mr. Low has always been 'a Republican, but'— He is a Republican, but he could not lend the favoring light of his countenance to James G. Blaine. He is and Oscar S. Strauk. It was decided to ark the phosen the support of Benjamin Harrison. He is a Republican, but he could not bring himself to the support of Benjamin Harrison. He is a Republican, but he telt it his duty to resign from the barry organization because, as he said, he did not believe in protection to American industries. He is a Republican, but his hand is always against to put or keep the Republican party out of power.

'His present but' is that, if elected, although a Republican, he will force that fact while in office, and he actually seems to think that there is some mysterious sort of virtue in so doing. The patronage of either streightening or weakening one party or another.' Now, I am a Republican who finds no distinction between the advantage of his party and the welfare of his country. In the light of the experience of the last ten years, not to go back further. I believe that it means bread and butter and happy homes to the American people to uphold the Republican party, and that every public place which honors a Republican and broadens his influence between the advantage of his light of the experience of the last ten years, not to go back further. I believe that it means bread and butter and happy homes to the American people to uphold the Republican party, and that every public place which honors a Republican and broadens his influence however small or great may be the his influence, however small or great may be the held of his end avor, tends to maintain those prin-ciples of government that are necessary to the public welfare. Mr. Low's pretty plan to secure to himself supreme power, 'free from all partisar is simply a scheme to create, under pretence of devotion to the public good, a purely personal political machine.

"As for his fair promises, he has siready shown that he can break them as fast as they are made He said in his letter of June 7 that he would not accept the nomination of the Citizens Union unless it could be shown that his candidacy would be a unifying force among the friends of good gov ernment.' This was positive assurance that he would not allow his candidacy to divide the anti-Tammany forces, and that he would not run at all unless he could run under the same conditions of harmony which gave success to the anti-Tammany ticket three years ago. He has deliberately violated this pledge. political record and the methods employed by the Citizens Union to force his candidacy upon the Republicans had rendered his nomination impossible in our convention, but that an agreement upon almost any other of the prominent candidates might easily be effected, instead of withdrawing himself from the situation to make room for one of these, as he was in honor bound to do, even if he had not made so specific a pledge, he gave the word to the politicians in the Citizens Union to go shead and make his nomination a formal fact The man who would do this is not a patriet. He is a selfish egotist. He shows that his promises are

NO COMMENT FROM MR. PLATT Senator T. C. Platt went to Washington last evening, and before he left his office in Broadway he saw several political friends. When a Tribune reporter asked for an interview Mr. Platt excuses imself on the plea that he was too busy to talk. His secretary said Mr. Platt had no comments to take upon Mr. Low's letter of acceptance, Richard Croker came to the city from Long Branch with Senator Murphy yesterday, and was at his real-estate office, at No. 111 Broadway, a good part of the day. To a Tribune reporter Mr. Croker said: "I have not read Mr. Low's letter. othing to say about politics except that I am not a leader, but only a private in the ranks. I am taking no part in the direction of the Democratic nunicipal campaign." The members of the Executive Committee of the Citizens Union all expressed admiration for Mr. Low's letter. Joseph Larocque said: "Mr. Low's Low's letter. Joseph Larocque said: "Mr. Low's letter covers the entire ground. There can be no dispute as to his eminent fitness for the office of Mayor. By his education, training and experience in municipal affairs he is fully qualified for the discharge of the arduous duties of the office. In the language of our declaration of principles, his character and record are such as to justify public confidence in the assurance that if elected he will not use his office or permit it to be used for the benent of any political organization. This assurance is given in Mr. Low's letter in no uncertain language."

William J. Schieffelin said: "It is a wise letter, uttering policies which will surely be approved by all sensible citizens."

Henry R. Kunhardt said: "It is an excellent letter in every respect."

George Tomblieson raid: "Such a man as Seth Low's letter shows him to be is the kind of a man the labor unions have wanted for Mayor of the city."

W. Harris R one said. The letter will greatly waid the Executive Committee in its work. The declarations in favor of home rule are especially timely and strong the said.

iarations in favor of home rule are especially timely and strong."

Richard Whison Gilder said: "It is the letter of a statesman-large-minded, wise, courageous. It is written by one of the country's greatest experts in the science of municipal government. The new imperial city wants and is worthy to have just such a men for its first Mayor."

WHAT WALL STREET SAID

The sentiment in the financial district is undentably strongly in favor of Mr. Low. There are few voters in this district who have not already made up their minds to vote for him, no matter who may be put up against him. Some expressions on Mr Low's letter of acceptance follow: E. E. Poor, president of the National Park Bank -The letter is an admirable document. The effort

A Natural * * 🚜 🧸 A Bracer.

Postum Cereal

Food Coffee.

¥+++++++++++++++++++++++++++

ouragement. I believe Mr. Low would give George G. Williams, president of the Chemical George G. Williams, president of the Chemical National Bank-Mr. Low's letter, in my opinion, is all that could be asked for. It indicates a policy perfectly independent of party and solely dictated by the public good, and is just what we want. It seems to me the duty of the Republican managers of fall into line and take up Mr. Low as their nominee. They certainly cannot find a better candidate. By doing so they will do the best they possibly can for their party, which will most certainly be censured if not successful in the coming election.

sibly can for their party, which with the coming election.

Warner Van Norden, president of the National Bank of North America—I have great pleasure in expressing my acquiescence in the sentiments contained in Mr. Low's letter of acceptance. In this document he is exhibited to the people of New-York as a nan who thoroughly understands the situation and is eminently capable of administering the city's affairs. It is peculiarly gratifying that he manifests no hostility to any existing political faction and no party can regard his candidacy as antagonistic to it. He stands simply for honest, common-sense management of municipal affairs, which he believes should be conducted as a private business should be, the sole object being to accompilsh the largest good to those interested. When Mr. Low's position and principles come to be thoroughly understood I believe that the whole people will rally around him with enthusiasm.

Oliver S. Carter, president of the National Bank of the Republic—I shall be glad to see Mr. Low elected as the first Mayor of the Greater New-York. He is above and beyond trying to make anything out of the office for himself except credit for a good administration. He is a man of great and varied experience, and in my opinion a splean did man for Mayor. I do not believe a better man could be nominated. He would try to make the administration of the office an example for the whole country.

WHAT SOME POLITICIANS THOUGHT. Frederick S. Gibbs, member of the Republican

Mr. Low's letter must be looked upon as a bid for votes. In it he is not willing to make plodges, except that he expressly states that he will not have anything to do with politics. It is the kind of letter any politician would write in order to get all he votes possible. I do not see why the Repub-can organization should indorse him for his let-

John Sabine Smith, ex-president of the Republican Jub. raid. "There is a remarkable omission which notice in Mr. Low's letter. Not once does be acution the word Tammany or make any reference o that organization. Nor has be said anything the would preclude him from appointing Tambany men in any number to offices high or low, hould be, in his own individual judgment, determine any proposed actions and the proposed and the same points. Should be in his own individual judgment, determine against the opinion of all others to appoint ordent adherents of W J Bryan to places of great responsibility, including finance, there is nothing in his letter which would prevent him from doing

MENTIONED FOR THE OTHER PLACES. SUGGESTIONS TO THE CITIZENS UNION FOR FILL ING OUT ITS TICKET.

Fourteen members attended the me Executive Committee of the Citizens Union yester-No 22 Liberty-st. They got together at 4 looking to the immediate nomination of candidates for Controller and President of the Council. John C. Clark, the secretary reported that many letters didates for the two offices, and that the men who were mentioned most frequently and favorably in those letters were Charles S. Fairculft, Henry W. Cannon, John Harsen Rhoutes, J. Hampden Robb, Ashbel P. Fitch, Frederick W. Wurster, Charles A. Schleren, Alexander E. Qrr. Frederick A. Schroeder and Oscar S. Straus. It was decided to ark the pub-lic to make further suggestions to the sub-commit-

IN FAVOR OF CONTROLLER FITCH. MANY BUSINESS MEN AND CITIZENS, OF EX-TENSIVE INFLUENCE ARE SUP PORTING HIM.

There is a great deal of talk, both in business and in political circles, about the advantages to be secured to the greater city by selecting a Controller wno is thoroughly versed in municipal af-fairs, and who believes that those affairs should be managed on bustness principles. Many citizens of worth and influence believe that the present Controller of the city of New-York, Ashbel T. Fitch, has fulfilled in a large measure all that might be expected from such an official. No main in office in New-York, these citizens say, has more constantly ignored political considerations in the few changes made in his large staff of officials. When appointments were to be made, the references other prominent men is the large financial institu other prominent men is the large interest tions of the city, the banks and insurance companies, and other corporations that manage the people's money affairs. Mr. Fitch believes the financial department of the city should be influenced by such citizens and not by politicians. All Mr. Fitch's promotions, it is asserted by those who have examined into these matters thoroughly, have been made for merit, and they say that the business of the department has consequency gone on without a hitch or any of the delays which might have resulted from the appointment of inexpertenced men. All the minor accomments under Controller Fitch have been made from the civil Service lists. The efficiency of the finance department of New-York City and the correctness of the methods employed can be testified to by hundreds of business men and by the heads of scores of financial institutions. For these reasons a great many business men believe that Controller Fitch outs to be the man to assume the complicated duties of Controller of the Greater New-York.

CITIZENS UNION LECTURES.

The following lectures will be given this week ender the auspices of the Citizens Union lecture To-night, No. 456 West Fortleth-st., "Public Char-itier," Commissioner John P. Faure; Ascension parish house, No. 12 West Eleventh-st., "Police Department and Magistrates' Courts. Phursday night-No. 545 East Eleventh-st., "Pub-

Thursday fight Foo ab East Eleventhest, "Pub-Farks and Public Works"; New Irving Hall, Broome-st, between Essex and Norfolk sts., "Schools and Building Inspection"; Macdougal-st, hall, No. 22 Macdougal-st, "Schools and Building Inspection", No. 9 Goerck-st., "Schools and Building Inspection." Schools and Billid-Friday night-Caledonian Hall, "Police Depart-ment and Magistrates Courts." Police Depart-nent and Magistrates Courts."

THE PRESIDENCY OF COLUMBIA.

Rumor is already beginning to busy itself in specmating upon the probable successor to the presidency of Columbia University. It has been under-steed that President Low would hand in his resignation at the first meeting of the trustees, which takes place on Monday, October 4. George L. Rives, one of the trustees, has been mentioned for the place, but John B. Pine, secretary of the corporation, said yesterday that the subject would not be considered in any way until Mr. Low's resignation had been received, and that all speculation was idle. It is not likely that a new president will be hastily chosen.

Jocoa Pinest Flavor . Fairest Price

NEW-YORK BEATEN AGAIN.

THE BROOKLYN MEN WIN BY BUNCH-ING THEIR HITS.

NINE INNINGS PLAYED TO THE GENERAL SUR-PRISE-THE TEAMS TO MEET AGAIN AT EASTERN PARK TO-DAY.

When the New-York baseball team gets upon the tobeggan slide it seems to desire a quick and rapid tumble into oblivion. The game at Eastern Park esterday was well played and interesting throughout. Dunn pitched a capital game for the home team, and the Brooklyn men won with something to spare. Seymour had fewer hits recorded against him, but he was inclined to wildness, which proved costly. Sheckard appeared for the first time with the home team as shortstop, and the youngster from Brockton, Mass., made a good impression. Davis and Shoch excelled in fielding. The two teams will play off the tre game remaining over from Monday at Eastern Park this afternoon.

The score: Dunn pitched a capital game for the home

Totals ... 32 7 8 27 13 4 Totals ... 38 5 9 24 14 5

WASHINGTON, 10; CINCINNATI, 9.

Washington, Sept. 14 .- The last game of the seaon on the Washington grounds was poorly played by both teams, but full of the uncertainty which keeps up interest. The finish, when four singles and a base on balls brought in the winning run, was one of wild excitement. The game was called at the end of the sixth inning on account of darkness. Attendance, 4,000. Score:

Buttories-Mercer and Farrell, Breitenstein, Dwyer and BOSTON. 6; PHILADELPHIA, 4.

Boston, Sept. 14.-Philadelphia played good ball to-day, but Boston played better. Nichols pitched well, and only in the second inning was he batted to any extent. The visitors outflelding was re-markably fine, and Cooley and Dowd killed several long hits by their splendid handling of balls. Score:

Hatteries -Nichols and Bergen; Taylor and Clements.

BALTIMORE, 15; CHICAGO, 8. Raltimore, Sept. 14.-The champions won to-day from Chicage in a game characterized by heavy fatting on both sides. Thornton's pitching was poor and he rarely found the plate. When he did the home team had no difficulty in hitting safely. Pond was also batted freely, but he managed to keep the visitors' hits more or less scattered. Attendance, 2803. Score:

Batteries - Pond and Robinson, Thornton and Donahus

CLEVELAND, 8; ST. LOUIS, 1. Cleveland, Sept. 14.-To-day's game, which was played before a small crowd, was full of snap from start to finish, but the visitors were outplayed at every point. Score:1 0 4 0 1 0 2 0 x 8 12 10 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 5 1 Batteries - Young and Criger; Donahue and Bouglass.

TWO GAMES IN LOUISVILLE. Louisville. Sept. 14.-Two games were played to-lay. Pittsburg capturing the first by hard hitting. Hill was knocked out of the box in the fifth inning The second game was called on account of darkness at the end of the fifth inning, with the score a tie. Attendance, 2,500. Scores: FIRST GAME.

SECOND GAME.

Batteries-Magee and Wilson; Killen and Sugden. OTHER GAMES YESTERDAY.

At Syracuse-Springfield 3: Syracuse, 1
At Montreal-Montreal, 12: Wilkesbarre, 3.
At Hartford-First game-Hartford, 5: Norfolk, 4.
iecond game-Hartford 5: Norfolk 0.
At Newark-Newark, 15: Athletics, 5.
At Paterson-Richmond, 8: Paterson, 4.
At Wilmington, Del.-Reading, 18: Lancaster, 3.

At Toronto-Scranton, 6; Toronto, 2, At Buffalo-Providence, 11; Buffalo, 3

TO-DAY'S GAME AT ORANGE OVAL The Washington National League team will cross bats with the Orange Athletic Club at Orange Oval this afternoon at & o'clock. The Orange men always put to a good game against League teams and occasionally beat one. Saturday's game be-tween Orange and the Oritani Field Club will be begun at 3.26.

MOLLOY FAR IN THE LEAD.

WESTCHESTER'S ANTI-MACHINE REPUBLI-CANS SWEEPING THE FIELD.

The Robertson-Ward Republicans of Westchester lounty are winning decisive victories under able eadership, and there is little doubt that they will control the County Convention, which meets White Plains next Tuesday to select candidates county offices. There will be 211 delegates in county, and William V. Molloy, of Newfor county offices. Rochelle, who is the anti-Burns-machine candidate for Sheriff, claims eighty-nine out of the ninetythree elected. The primaries in Mount Vernon will held to-morrow night, and in Yonkers on Friday Mount Vernon elects twenty-three delegates and Yonkers forty-one, and at least one-half of the number, it is said, will favor Mr. Molley. The Robertson-Ward Republicans of Mamaroneck and Boyd, won a victory on Monday night. William A. H. Campbell, George G. Murray, Frank Hardy, J. McLoughlin and Burton C. Melghan, favoring Mr. Molloy, received a plurality of seventy-eight votes out of a total of 260 polled, and Jacob Halthe leader of the Burns-Fairchild faction. was defeated overwhelmingly for county committee-man. The contest was one of the most exciting ever held in the town, as the Burns-Fairchild action has been in the ascendency in former years. Mr. Molloy was aided materially by the members of the Larchmont Yacht Club, who came to the of the Latendaries in large numbers. The yachtsmen were formidable politicians, and it is due to their efforts largely that the supremacy was wrested from Mr

The Republican caucus of the town of Cortlandt was held on Monday evening at the office of John Silleck, in Peckskill. Ex-Supervisor James H. Haight and Alderman David G. Montross, two veterans, both of war and the Republican party, took the votes, and Charles Nassau Wells and an assistant were clerks. The polls were open from 7:30 to 3 p. m. There was no opposition, although there were frequent scratches on the tickets where voters desired to express disapproval of some of the men on the delegation. There were 350 votes cast, and most of the delegates received the entire vote. The delegations elected were as follows:

District.-S. R. Knapp, chairman; John Halsted, Isaac H. Smith, H. H. Denike, William Fields, George Waugh, Frederick Lent, Dr. E de M. Lyon, William Heit, Eugene Travis, Morris T. Joseph Hudson, James Calhoun, William Belle-feuille, Frederick Buckner, Charles McCutchen, L. Covert, John Rotche, Byron Travis and Clarence

E. Covert, John Rotche, Byron Travis and Clarence Anderson.
County-James W. Husted, chairman; D. W.
Travis, John Smith, ir. L. F. Crumb, William Dunphy, John I. Storm, Oscar Ray, James K. Apgar, E. D. Bellefeuille, John B. Haisted, Dr. P. H.
Mason, James H. Haight, James F. Bushnell, Angus
F. Chase, Joseph Hudson, John Mable, 2d. L. B.
Travis, George Jewell, Milton Blinker and D. G.
Montross,
Assembly-John I. Storm, chairman; George Halsted, Frank Montross, Frederick R. Field, John L.
Silleck, Herbert Griffin, James Hickey, H. G. Moorhouse, C. W. Oldfield, R. S. Allen, Cyrus Reynolds
Thomas D. Husted, James T. Sutton, George E.
Erigks, Isaac Yocum, Elbert Kipp, H. P. Dain,
A. K. Cole, C. L. Bleakley and William J. Charton.

Assemblyman James W. Husted, at the caucus, stated to a Tribune reporter that the county delegation is unanimously for William V. Molloy for Sheriff.

Assembly delegation is for James K. Appar

The Rare Skins

used by The Gorham Co., Silversmiths, it the manufacture of their Fine Leather Goods are beautiful and interesting in their natura condition, but they become objects of art it their workshops.

Gorham Mfg. Co. SILVERSMITHS, Broadway & 19th St. 23 Maiden Lane.

The "Popular Shop."

(From Carpets, Wall Papers and Curtains.)

August 14th, 1997.

"As an item of quick progress, it is interesting to note that Joseph P. McHugh & Co., of New York, new import one-tenth of all the foreign Wall Papers brought into the United States." Private Designs and Special Colorings.
Effective Things at Moderate Cost,
the Personal Collection of Mr. McHugh.

Wall Papers and "L'berty" Fabrics—Carriage Free to all parts of the *Tales.
(Teademarks Reg d.) 424 St. W. at 5th Ave.

The Original Cereal Coffee. Produced in Kaffeebrod 1875. A perfect food beverage. Unsurpassed for children. HEALTH FOOD CO.

CARPET T.M. STEWART CLEANSING NEAR 28TH ST.

The Telephone is to Steam what Steam is to Walking.

REED & BARTON. SILVERSMITHS.

Broadway and 17th Street, N. Y

RADWAY'S PILLS.

QUICKLY and permanently cured at the old and reliable Feabody Medical Institute, No. 4 Bullinch at coppative Revere Houses, Boston. Established in 1800. Chief Consulting Physician graduate Harvard Medical College, class 1804. Author of "The Science of Life; of, Sci-Press, vation"—the Prize Essav. A 1800k for every man, Price only $1, by mail, scaled. Pamphlet prospectus PREE, Send now Consultation in person or by Science as above, or P. O. Box 1895.

Flint's Fine Furniture.

Oak, Birch, or Mahogany Finish, $1.00. for Assemblyman, who was for two years secretary to Lieutenant-Governor Saxton, for severs, years Speaker's cierk at Albany, and is now secretary to Congressman Ward.

The Burns-Fairchild Town Committee, of Sin-Sing, of which General E. A. McAlbin is chairman, held its caucus for the election of delegates to the several conventions vesterday. The Wird-Robertson Republicans took no part in the caucus, but will hold a caucus of their own.

CLOTHES POLES,

MOLLOY MEN WITHDRAW. A SPLAT AT THE TOWN CONVENTION IN NEW

ROCHELLE. The Town Convention in New-Rochelle to select delegates to the County Convention ended in a rum-pus last night, and William V. Molloy and his fol-lowers left the hall and held a separate convention The Burns-Fairchild faction was led by William K Paimer. Mr. Molloy had twenty-nine delegates present, and E. B. Long's friends claimed thirty. Molloy's friends had in the mean time secured the support of some of the Long delegates who were absent, and the fight began ween Paimer and his folowers refused to recognize them, and filled their places with other men, who cast their ballots for him as permanent chairman, against Charles Ear-wicker, the Molloy candidate. Mr. Molloy's friends protested and were ignored, and with Mr. Earwicker as their chairman, left the hall and held a convention of their own, nominating delegates to th convention of their own, nominating delegates to the County, Assembly and Assembly district conventions. Among the delegates are Henry Sweet and Charles Nutt, the editors of both Republican Pepers, who last year supported Ben L. Fairchile. The Burns faction also elected delegates and industried E. B. Long for Sheriff. The rival delegation will go to the convention in White Plains next luctured and ask for recognition.

WELLINGTON OUT AND SORE

HE RESIGNS HIS CHAIRMANSHIP IN A BITTER SPEECH.

Baltimore, Sept. 14 (Special).-Senator Weillington at a special meeting of the Republican State Committe, to-day resigned the chairmanship as a result of his defeat at the first meeting of the State Convention in the fight over the Mayoralty nomination in Baltimore. In tendering his resignation, Ma Wellington made a speech full of bitterness. He denied that he had been a political boss, and dedore Marburg for Mayor of Baltimore because he believed that he would receive the independent vote as well as the support of the party. Continuing, the Senator said:

ong, the Senator said:

For thirty years the Republican party in this State went to defeat after defeat. I had always believed that Maryland could be carried by the Republicans. It dawned on me that unanimity of action and a good ticket were all that would be required. We had a combination of these conditions in 1895 and won. Again we had them in 1895 and again we won. It was my purpose again to bring about such a victory. Everything that I diways with an eye single to Republican success. We had had it in the past, and I intended that we should have it again this year.

For months I have listened to all the attacks that have been made upon me personally with a dealear. I have heard the yell of hate, the hiss of eny and the cry of folly without a word, but there have come events now which must be recognized. The organization of which I was the head has been discredited in Maryland, and it is time for me to retire. When in the State Convention you recognized disloyalty you lost your chance of victory. You have overthrown the party organization. Now take it and do what you can with It. Win if you can. At last I have thrown off the bonds of responsibility. I go to take a rest. I present with my resignation the resignations of the secretary and treasurer of this committee. I want to say it conclusion that I have thrown off the bonds of the scommittee, in animosity to any one.

When the Senator intimated that the party would.

When the Senator intimated that the party would be defeated he was roundly hissed by delegates in lower part of the hall. Mr. Wellington's face paled and then reddened, and in a sharp tone he rebuked the disturbers with the remark that hisses were now of no avail and harmless. On finishing his speech he left the platform and quickly left the hall, without a word to any one. His resignation was accepted, as were also those of Heary Lingenfelder, secretary, and Noble H. Creager, treasurer, of the committee. John C. Rose, of Baltimore County, was made temporary chairman. Either Congressman Mudd or State Senator Westcott will succeed to the chairmanship. The State Convention meets in this city to-morrow, when it is believed Phillips Lee Goldsborough, of the Eastern Shore, will be nominated for State Controller and General Allan Rutherford for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, the only State offices to be filled at the coming election. paled and then reddened, and in a sharp tone be edy that relieves by gentle means; cures headache, biliousness and indigestion. Sold by druggists for so years.